MISSION TRIP 2013

"I will be forever grateful for the opportunity to go on the Compassus Living Hope mission trip. It was the best experience of my life! I was born in a Third World country, and I felt very empathetic towards the people of South Africa and welcomed learning about their culture. The children particularly touched me – they were adorable, they were respectful and they were so appreciative of our being there. If I had the opportunity to go again, I would do so in a heartbeat!"
